

The Keeper of the Bridge of Death's Guide to Writing Good Quiz Questions

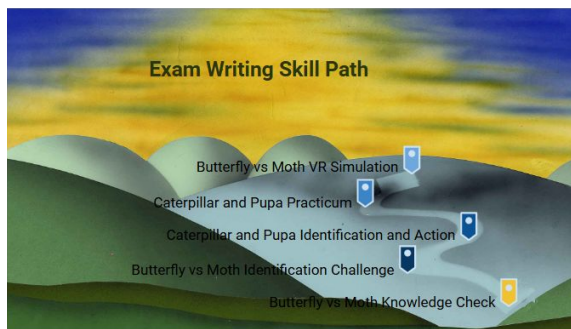

Participant Guide

“You’ve taken your first step into a larger world.”
~ Sir Alec Guinness as Obi-Wan Kenobi

Exam Writing Career Path

This introduction to writing Knowledge Checks is the most important course you will take. Either you will discover this is what you enjoy doing and want to do. Or, you will discover this isn’t how you want to spend your life under the dome and you can go explore other opportunities.

If this is for you, there are several career paths you can follow.

This slide shows one potential career path along the exam writing path.

Other paths include course and content creation, training and delivery, learning technology and design, content development, and instructional design.

Keep in mind this isn’t set in stone. Based on what you’ve just heard about career paths, write the career path that most appeals to you.

“The best way to understanding is a few good examples.”
~ Sir Isaac Newtoni

Lessons from Questions

- What is your name?
- What is your quest?
- What is your favourite colour?
- What is the capital of Assyria?
- What is the airspeed of an unladen swallow?

Write down the lessons that stand out to you and any other lessons you discover below.

“You don’t learn to walk by following the rules.
You learn by doing and falling over.”

~ Sir Richard Branson

Your Questions

Using the lessons you learned from the instructional video, write a 10 question knowledge assessment for the Butterfly vs Moths which will help Hunter/Gatherers on their career journeys.

1. _____
2. _____
3. _____
4. _____
5. _____
6. _____
7. _____
8. _____
9. _____
10. _____